Federal Employee Benefits Live Discussion Topics

We believe everyone should align themselves with a professional that understands the retirement process.
Too many unqualified financial "professionals" make decisions with peoples money. Taxes, income, and financial growth are all in jeopardy without proper retirement planning strategies. We know Federal Benefits, let us help guide you so you may receive the retirement you have worked so hard for.

La Tahyana Hudson
FEDERAL BENEFIT ADVISOR

The requirements to receive a retirement benefit
How retirement benefit amounts are determined
When and why benefits may be reduced
How to get credit for military service and re-deposits
The cost for providing survivors with benefits

How the amount of FEGLI coverage is determined
About the optional benefit coverages available
The costs for various coverage options
What happens to life insurance at retirement
What are choices to continue coverage at retirement

How the Thrift Savings Plan can help you to save
Why there is still time to catch-up for retirement
How to choose the right mix of investment options
How to get money out of the plan while still working
About the opportunities with the new Roth TSP feature

How Flexible Spending Accounts challenge employees
About the potential of High Deductible Plans and HSAs
The benefits available under the FEDVIP plan
How health benefits are continued for those leaving service
The fundamentals of Medicare, including when to enroll

Stay up to date and find out about future LIVE Discussions on our website at:

WWW.RETIREWITHLH.COM
Lhudson@retirewithlh.com
813.720.4726

LIFE & RETIREMENT