THE VA ACCOUNTABILITY AND WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION ACT OF 2017:

Impact on VA’s Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

Department of Veterans Affairs
Office of Human Resources Management
Employee Relations and Performance Management Service

Presenters

From OHRM Employee Relations and Performance Management Service:

• Jennifer Hayek, Team Leader
• Elizabeth Hill, Team Leader
Public Law 115-41

• Department of Veterans Affairs Accountability and Whistleblower Protection Act of 2017.

• Signed by the President June 23, 2017.

• Only applies to employees of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

Public Law 115-41

Title I
• Establishes Office of Accountability and Whistleblower Protection (Sections 101-103)

Title II
• Accountability of Senior Executives, Supervisors, and Other Employees (Sections 201-211)

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
Purpose of the law:

To amend Title 38, United States Code (U.S.C.), to improve the accountability of employees of the Department of Veterans Affairs, and for other purposes.

Although revisions were made to 38 U.S.C., the Act is not limited to just Title 38 employees.
• 38 U.S.C. § 713 was amended to provide a new process for the Secretary to take action against Senior Executives of the VA.

• 38 U.S.C. § 714 is a new authority for the Secretary to use to take an adverse action against a covered employee of the VA, other than a Senior Executive.

Section 208 of P.L. 115-41 modified the time frames and procedures for taking a Disciplinary or Major Adverse Action against a Title 38 employee as prescribed in 38 U.S.C. §§ 7462 and 7463.
The Act did not create a new authority by which to take an action.

The Act modified 38 U.S.C. §§ 7462 and 7463, by shortening certain timeframes for all Disciplinary and Major Adverse Actions (MAA) for full-time permanent Title 38 employees.

The Act also added a requirement that the evidence file be provided to the employee when the proposal notice is issued.

Effective Dates

The effective date of the action may be at any time after consideration of the employee’s oral and/or written reply, or after the expiration of the reply period but . . .

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA’s Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
In accordance with current VA policy, the effective date of a Major Adverse Action will be no earlier than 5 calendar days after issuance of the decision, whenever possible.

Additionally, the effective date must be in compliance with any applicable CBA language that specifically addresses the effective date of an action.

The Act supersedes any conflicting timelines and processes in any collective bargaining unit agreement (CBA).

The Act is silent on some issues that are covered in CBAs, e.g. effective date of action.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

What Stays the Same?

- All other provisions for Title 38 employees remain the same, i.e. there is no new “authority” to take a Title 38 action.
- Part-time and intermittent RNs and Probationary employees – continue following provisions in VA Handbook 5021
- Actions must still be supported by preponderance of the evidence.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA’s Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
What Stays the Same?

- Once a Board is appointed, the Disciplinary Appeals Board (DAB) processes and timelines remain the same.
- DAB still has authority to mitigate penalty.
- If the action is not based on Professional Conduct or Competence (PCC), the employee can still appeal the action to either the Agency grievance process or the negotiated grievance process (one or the other, not both).
- Agency and negotiated grievance timelines remain unchanged.

38 U.S.C. § 714

Title 5
and
Full-time Title 38
Hybrid Employees

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

What is new?

• The Act created a new authority, 38 U.S.C. § 714, to take an adverse action (conduct or performance-based) against covered VA employees.

• Adverse actions = suspensions of 15 calendar days or more, demotion, removal

• The new authority did not “do away” with Chapter 75 or Chapter 43 authorities.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA’s Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
New authority for taking performance or conduct-based actions. Applies to all VA employees except:

- An individual occupying a senior executive position as defined in 38 U.S.C. § 713(d);
- An individual appointed pursuant to §§ 7306, 7401(1), 7401(4), or 7405 of Title 38;
- An individual who has not completed a probationary or trial period; or
- A political appointee.

NOTE:

- Part-time/intermittent and temporary Title 38 Hybrid employees are appointed under 38 U.S.C. § 7405 and are NOT covered by this new authority (use Chapter 75 or Chapter 43 procedures as before).
- The new authority CAN be used for Canteen employees but will afford them MSPB rights that they currently do not have.
NOTE:

38 U.S.C. § 714 CANNOT be used for Title 38 employees even though the relevant portion of the Act falls under 38 U.S.C. as they are specifically excluded.

Performance Action Requirements - 714

- No requirement that the employee be under standards for 90 days.

- No longer required to afford the employee an opportunity to improve, i.e. issue a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).

- Management can remove or demote an employee based on significant performance deficiencies.
What are Significant Performance Deficiencies?

- The failure of a critical element in an employee’s performance plan;
- A reasonable belief that the employee’s performance deficiency is so serious that it cannot be improved;
- The deficiency poses a clear danger to the employee or others;
- The deficiency presents a risk to important services provided to Veterans, e.g., health care or benefits; or
- The repeated failure of non-critical elements in an employee’s performance plan.

Performance Action Requirements - 714

- Management can base an adverse action for performance on evidence used to support deficiencies in a final rating, closeout rating, or recent progress review, or
- Management can base an adverse action on performance deficiencies noted during the rating cycle provided it was shared with the employee in some form of written communication (e.g. email or memo).
Misconduct

Misconduct refers to but is not limited to:

• Neglect of duty
• Malfeasance
• Failure to accept a directed reassignment
• Failure to accompany a position in a transfer of function
• Retaliation against a whistleblower for making a lawful whistleblower disclosure

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

Processing 38 U.S.C. § 714 Actions

Required Burden of Proof under 38 U.S.C. § 714

Substantial Evidence means relevant evidence that a reasonable person, considering the record as a whole, might accept as adequate to support a conclusion, even though other reasonable persons might disagree, or evidence that a reasonable mind would accept as adequate to support a conclusion.
Using the authority of 38 U.S.C. § 714, Management may:

- Suspend an employee for 15 calendar days or more (conduct-based action only)
- Demote an employee for misconduct or performance
- Remove an employee for misconduct or performance

Before we continue:

Business days are defined as weekdays, which are Monday through Friday in Washington DC, except when such a day is designated as a Federal holiday by OPM.

The employee must be informed of any information considered in arriving at the proposed action so he/she may address it in the reply.

Additionally, any information the Proposing Official wishes the Deciding Official to consider must also be part of the proposal.
Douglas Factors are no longer applicable

BUT

Level of Discipline

- The Proposing and Deciding Officials must impose an appropriate level of discipline that is reasonable and commensurate with the facts of the case, using non-discriminatory, business-related reasons that are not arbitrary or capricious.

- This rationale must be explained in the written Proposal and Decision notices.

What about Whistleblowers?

Important:

If a covered employee files an alleged prohibited personnel practice with the Office of Special Counsel (OSC) or makes a whistleblower disclosure with the Office of Accountability and Whistleblower Protection (OAWP), an action proposed under 38 U.S.C. § 714 cannot be taken without consultation with the Office of General Counsel (OGC) and/or the OAWP.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

---

Filing an Appeal under 38 U.S.C. § 714

- Employee can file an appeal to the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) or a negotiated grievance, if covered by a CBA.

- Employee has 10 business days to file an appeal with MSPB or a negotiated grievance, if applicable.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
Mitigation of Penalty under 38 U.S.C. § 714

- MSPB does not have the authority to mitigate the level of discipline imposed by the agency, but it can overturn the action if the decision is not supported by substantial evidence.

- MSPB has 180 calendar days to decide the appeal.

Questions?

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
What Stays the Same?

- The provisions of Chapter 75 as defined in VA Handbook 5021, Part I, Chapter 2, must still be used for actions based on misconduct for admonishments, reprimands, and suspensions of 14 calendar days or less on any non-probationary employee.

- Additionally, Chapter 75 can still be used for conduct-based actions; however, a higher standard of proof, 30-day advance notice, and a Douglas Factor analysis will be required.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

What Stays the Same?

- An evidence file is still required to support all actions being taken.

- The provisions of Chapter 43 can still be used to take a performance-based action against an employee; however, an opportunity to improve period will be required under that authority.

- The performance appraisal process has not changed. Performance deficiencies must still be supported by documentation.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA's Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
Some MSPB case law that will likely still apply:

• Making sure there is a nexus between the employee’s job and the charged misconduct.
• Ensuring the employee’s right to due process is not violated, as failure to do so will result in the action being overturned.
• Ensuring ex parte communication issues such as those found in Ward v. USPS and Stone v. FDIC do not occur as a finding of a due process violation may result.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA’s Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions

---

38 U.S.C. § 731 – Supervisory Employees

If a supervisor is found to have engaged in Whistleblower retaliation in conjunction with a finding by the Secretary, the Office of Inspector General (OIG), or, if the matter is still pending or under appeal, an administrative judge, the MSPB, or a Federal judge, consult with the OAWP.

P.L. 115-41: Impact on VA’s Performance and Conduct-Based Adverse Actions
If the Secretary concurs with a recommendation for disciplinary action, the Supervisor will receive:

- A minimum of a 12 day suspension up to removal for a first offense; and
- Removal for the second offense.

If a supervisor is issued a proposed action due to a finding of whistleblower reprisal, he/she will be afforded 10 calendar days to submit a written response instead of 7 business days.
