

be filed in or submitted to any court or any administrative forum including but not limited to, the General Accounting Office or the Office of Personnel Management for the time period that this grievance covers. By agreeing to accept payment under this settlement, the Grievant agrees to waive any right or entitlement to pursue or collect payment for any FLSA claim asserted in the grievance covered by this settlement agreement for the time period July 14, 2003 through the date the settlement is fully executed.

2. Lump Sum

Without constituting an admission of liability or any wrongdoing upon the part of either the Agency or the Grievant, the Agency agrees to pay, through the Grievant's attorneys Woodley & McGillivray, the lump sum settlement amount of $42,500.00 to resolve all claims for FLSA overtime work performed by bargaining unit employees assigned to the Food Services Department at FCI (Low) Coleman during their duty-free meal periods through the date the settlement is fully executed. This lump sum covers all backpay, liquidated damages, interest and attorneys' fees and costs (i.e., "damages"), which may have been claimed by the Grievant on behalf of present and former bargaining unit members of the Bureau of Prisons with a duty station at FCI (Low) Coleman, and, for the damages portion of the grievance, those current and former bargaining unit members who identify themselves as performing uncompensated work by completing the paperwork required by the Union to demonstrate that they wish to participate in the damages portion of the grievance and that the performed work during their duty-free meal periods while assigned to the Food Services Department at FCI (Low) Coleman after July 14, 2003. The Union shall determine how to distribute the lump sum amount among the participating damages recipients.

3. Payment Timetable and Method for Payment of Lump Sum

The Agency shall make the lump sum payment of $42,500 to the law firm of Woodley & McGillivray at 1101 Vermont Ave, NW, Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20005 by an electronic funds transfer or a single check made payable to "Woodley & McGillivray" on or before April 2, 2012. Woodley & McGillivray on behalf of the Grievant will be responsible for distributing to each participating damages recipient his/her respective share of the lump sum amount. The parties agree that this Settlement Agreement does not determine the amount of any income tax or any other taxes for which the Grievant, participating damages recipients, or beneficiaries may be liable now or in the future as a result of this Agreement. The Union agrees that the participating damages recipients will be responsible for any federal, state, or local tax liability arising from the payment of the amounts set forth in the settlement, and that they will hold the Agency harmless from any liability for such taxes which may be owed on account of payment from this settlement. After making any distribution to the Grievant, participating damages recipients, or other beneficiaries, all required forms will be submitted by Woodley & McGillivray on behalf of the Union to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for each Grievant, participating damages recipient, or beneficiary. Woodley & McGillivray on behalf of the Union will be responsible for distributing all required federal tax forms to the Grievant, participating damages recipients, or beneficiaries. These tax forms must be sent in accordance with Federal tax regulations.

4. Interest

In the event that the Agency fails to pay the amount of $42,500 on or before April 2, 2012, interest shall begin to accrue on the amount owed beginning on April 3, 2012. Interest will accrue in accordance with the formula prescribed under the Back Pay Act, 5 U.S.C. §5596(b)(2)(A), and by the Office of Personnel Management in FPM Letter 550-78. The interest shall be computed at the rate or rates in effect under Section 6621(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and shall continue to accrue until the Agency transmits the lump sum amount to Woodley & McGillivray in accordance with paragraph 3 above.

5. Release From Claims Related to Settlement

The Union and the Agency understand and agree that in consideration for the payment made by the Agency and the Agency's compliance with the terms of this Agreement, the Grievant remises, releases and forever irrevocably discharges the United States government, the Bureau of Prisons, the Agency and their officers, agents and employees, and each of them, separately and collectively, from the claim asserted in the grievance covered by this settlement agreement for the time period July 14, 2003 through the date the settlement is fully executed.

6. Waiver

In consideration for the payments made and the promises provided herein the Union will not sponsor any arbitration or individual grievances seeking FLSA overtime compensation for the time spent by bargaining unit employees performing work during their duty-free meal periods while assigned to the Food Services Department at FCI (Low) Coleman for the time period July 14, 2003 through the date the settlement is fully executed.

7. Extensions

Any of the deadlines set forth in this agreement may be extended by mutual agreement of the Union and the Agency.

8. Precedent

This Agreement is made solely for the purpose of settling and permitting entry of final resolution of this grievance (FMCS Case No. 06-05213). The parties agree that this Agreement shall not be cited as precedent, and may not be cited, published, or referenced by either party as justification for their respective positions or referred to in any other proceeding, whether judicial or administrative, for any purpose other than to enforce the terms of this Agreement.
