

MERIT SYSTEMS PROTECTION BOARD

APPEAL FORM

INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL: You do not have to use this form to file an appeal with the Board. However, if you do not, your appeal must still comply with the Board's regulations. See 5 C.F.R. Parts 1201, 1208, and 1209. Your agency's personnel office will give you access to the regulations, and the Board will expect you to be familiar with them. You also should become familiar with the Board's key case law and controlling court decisions as they may affect your case. Complete Parts I, II, III and V of this form regardless of the kind of action you are appealing. Complete Part VI only if you are appealing an action resulting from a reduction in force. You must tell the Board if you are raising an affirmative defense (see Part IV), and you are responsible for proving each defense you raise. If you believe the action you are appealing was threatened, proposed, taken, or not taken because of whistleblowing activities, you must complete Part VII. If you are requesting a stay, you must complete Part VIII. If you claim a violation of your rights under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) or the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act (VEOA), you must provide the information required by the Board's regulations at 5 C.F.R. 1208.13 (for USERRA appeals) or 5 C.F.R. 1208.23 (for VEOA appeals). You may use a separate sheet of paper (please put your name and address at the top of each additional page) or you may include the information in block 31 of Part IV.

WHERE TO FILE AN APPEAL: You must file your appeal with the Board's regional or field office which has responsibility for the geographic area where your duty station was located when the agency took the action or, if you are appealing a retirement or suitability decision, the geographic area where you live. See 5 C.F.R. Part 1201, Appendix II, and 5 C.F.R. 1201.4(d).

WHEN TO FILE AN APPEAL: Unless your appeal is covered by a law that sets a different filing time limit, your appeal must be filed during the period beginning with the day after the effective date, if any, of the action you are appealing and ending on the 30th day after the effective date, or within 30 days after the date you receive the agency's decision, whichever is later. However, if you and the agency mutually agree in writing to try to resolve your dispute through an alternative dispute resolution process before you file an appeal, you have an additional 30 days—for a total of 60 days—to file your appeal. You may not file your appeal before the effective date of the action you are appealing. If your appeal is late, it may be dismissed as untimely. If you are filing a USERRA appeal, there is no time limit for filing (see 5 CFR 1208.12). You may not file a VEOA appeal with the Board unless you first filed a complaint with the Secretary of Labor and allowed the Secretary at least 60 days to try to resolve the matter; any subsequent appeal to the Board must be filed within 15 days of the date you receive notice that the Secretary has been unable to resolve the matter (see 5 C.F.R. 1208.22). If you are filing a whistleblower appeal after first filing a complaint with the Office of Special Counsel (OSC), your appeal must be filed within 65 days of the date of the OSC notice advising you that the Special Counsel will not seek corrective action or within 60 days after the date you receive the OSC notice, whichever is later (see 5 C.F.R. 1209.5). The date of filing is the date your appeal is postmarked, the date of the facsimile transmission, the date it is delivered to a commercial overnight delivery service, or the date of receipt if you personally deliver it to the regional or field office.

HOW TO FILE AN APPEAL: You may file your appeal by mail, by facsimile, by commercial overnight delivery, or by personal delivery. You must submit two copies of both your appeal and all attachments. You may supplement your response to any question on separate sheets of paper, but if you do, please put your name and address at the top of each additional page. All of your submissions must be legible and on 8 1/2" x 11" paper. Your appeal must contain your or your representative's signature in block 6.
