

October is

Breast Cancer Awareness

Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Employees at the Brooklyn VA hosted their annual awareness table to educate employees about this deadly disease.

Domestic Violence is an issue that effect many individuals. It is important that we remain allies and are aware of the resources if needed. On this day we provided information to employees and visitors.

AFGE 2nd District

517 Route 1 South, Suite 1109

Iselin New Jersey 08830

Phone: 732-828-9449

Fax: 732-828-9215

E-mail: Jenniferramirezafge@aol.com and

Vbarrowyoung2@gmail.com

To have your event featured in our upcoming newsletter please email Jennifer Ramirez or Vanessa Barrow.

Don't have a Y.O.U.N.G coordinator in your local?

Please contact your Local President.

"No one can change the world individually it takes the wisdom of the elders the young peoples energy , Welcome to the story we call victory" --- Glory by Common and John Legend

2nd District AFGE

2ND EDITION

SEPTEMBER - NOVEMBER 2016

- Women's Right to say NO
- “Walk a mile in her shoes”
- A.F.G.E Young Training Summit at Maryland Aug 2016
- Advocating for breast cancer awareness
- Domestic Violence information table at the Brooklyn VA.

AFGE
Y.O.U.N.G

AFGE Y.O.U.N.G Supports a Women's Right to say “No”

This year AFGE members from across the nation participated in the “Walk a mile in her shoes” event to bring awareness of sexualized violence against women.

Union officers from various Federal Agencies come together demonstrate that “Rape hurts us all”

Left to right: Jennifer Ramirez –YOUNG National Member at large. J David Cox President of AFGE. Vanessa Barrow YOUNG 2nd District Coordinator.

Walk a mile in her shoes

Members of AFGE National YOUNG Committee

These young leaders continuously work on issues pertinent to Young Workers. From encouraging young members to mobilize in their locals to voicing young workers issues in Capitol hill Washington DC. These Young leaders are energized and determined to continue the unions legacy.