

AFGE is Committed to Your Success

AFGE is the largest federal employee union and the largest union representing civilian workers in the Department of Defense.

Our members work hard to protect and serve the country. Many are veterans who are continuing to give back to their community as federal public servants.

Your Voice Matters

As a card-carrying member of AFGE, you have a real voice in the decisions that affect your job.

AFGE fights for our members each and every day – whether it's on the shop floor, at the Pentagon, in the halls of Congress, or in the public arena.

AFGE Members Effect Change

You care about the quality of your work. Inadequate staffing, equipment, and training can make it harder for you to do your job well. AFGE works with national and local DoD officials to negotiate changes that improve your worksite and help you better serve the American public.

AFGE DEFCON: A Powerful Tool for Locals

AFGE DEFCON is an advisory body designed to keep union leaders from DoD's services and component agencies informed of civilian personnel issues affecting Defense workers nationwide and overseas.

DEFCON stands for the Defense Conference. Every DoD service and component agency is represented within AFGE DEFCON.

Locals representing workers in a particular service or agency together form a caucus, which addresses issues of common interest across individual worksites. Each caucus is represented by a caucus chair; these chairs form DEFCON's steering group.

AFGE DEFCON Helps ...

Organize new members at DoD facilities nationwide and overseas

Promote AFGE's legislative agenda to members of Congress and DoD leaders

Fight attacks to our jobs, our benefits, and our wages

Secure new workplace rights and benefits through union contracts

Train local activists through organizing boot camps

Raise public awareness of issues affecting front-line DoD workers
