AFGE Empowers You to Improve Your Workplace

"I became a union member because I witnessed firsthand how my coworkers were being unfairly treated in my department. I needed to step up and speak out for those who couldn't or wouldn't do it on their own."

- Dr. Gerald Santulli, Navy Dental Corps

"You have a strong backing when you become a union member, your voice holds more weight, and there are benefits the union shines a light on that many employees didn't even know were available."
