

The Airport ALERT Act (HR 4737)

What you need to know:

- It ensures that the people who keep airports safe are protected if there is an attack on any airport like the mass shooting at Fort Lauderdale International Airport in 2017.
- It sets requirements for active shooter situations for all airport workers, including TSOs.
- It requires TSA and other airport employers to provide timely information to workers about active threats.