

AFGE COUNCIL 270 DELIVERS A WIN

Management tried to force NPS employees into supervisory roles. We stopped it.

WHAT HAPPENED

Management required interpretive rangers at Independence to serve as acting supervisors.

AFGE demanded to bargain.

Management refused.

WHAT WE DID

We filed a ULP. Management backed off, then tried again under a new name. We filed again.

THE RESULT

The FLRA ruled management was wrong and must bargain with AFGE.

WHAT THIS MEANS

- You can't be forced into higher-level duties without bargaining
- Your rights are protected
- Your union is fighting and winning

AFGE Council 270 has your back!
